THE TOVCH-STONE OF TRVTH

Wherein Veritie, by Scripture is plainely confirmed, and Errour confuted. That one of meane capacity, by helpe of this Booke, may be able to argue with any Papist, and confute him by Scripture.

Deut. 16. vers. 18. 19. 20.

18 And it shall be, when hee sitteth upon the Throne of his Kingdome, that he shall write him a coppy of this Law in a Book, out of that which is before the Priests the Levites.

19 And it shall be with him, and he shall read therin all the daies of his life, that he may learne to feare the LORD his GOD to keepe all the words of this Law, and these Statutes to doe them

20 That his heart be not lifted up above his brethren, and that he turne not aside from the Commandement, to the right hand, or to the left; to the end that he may prolong his dayes in his Kingdome, he and his children in the middest of Israel.

TO THE HIGH AND MIGHTIE MONARCH CHARLES,

By the Grace of God KING of Great BRITAINE, FRANCE, and IRELAND, Defendour of the Faith, &c.

Most dread and gracious Soveraigne,

THE great King of all soules (Christ Jesus) preferring the poore Widowes small mite, to the proud Pharises vaun-ting ſhew, inlargeth my confidence, That your Sacred Majeſtie (Chriſts Vicegerent here) will ever according to your knowne Goodneſſe, and royall Vertues, accept of the meaneſt Oblation, which beeing conſecrated upon the Altar of true Devotion is offered unto your Majeſties ſervice. Having formerly ſuffered Preſſe, and paſſed under your Highneſſe moſt Royall Protection, (being then Prince) treating of ſo Divine a ſubject as the Touchſtone of Truth, conſiſting of inconfutable Poſitions, produced from holy VVrit, and here in a Compendi- pendium plainely set downe;

which beeing the first fruites of my Labours (inlarged with some newe Additions) tending to the maintenance of true
Religion and the most ancient Faith
I was imboldned to re-dedicate unto your Sacred Majestie, justly stiled on Earth, True Faiths Defender. Most humbly craving that it may be graciously and ac-ceptably received, as it proceeds heartily and faithfully from him, that on bended knees of bowed heart, daily prayes unto the most High for your Majesties long,
happy, and prosperous Raigne,

to the glory of the great God, the happy flourishing of Christs Gospel, the generall joy and comfort of all your Majesties faithfull loyall Subjects, and true beleeving Christians.

DE 63

Your MAIESTIES

most dutyfull Subject,

and humblest Servant,

IAMES WARRE.

To the Christian Reader.

THis Booke (Courteous Reader, little in shew, and great in substance) containes sundry Heads, plainely opposing the many Errors our Fore-Fathers were subjected unto by Raging Rome, (during the time of their Ægyptian darkenesse) as by pregnant Proofes out of divers places of Scripture evidently appeares: Each Page includes a severall matter, and is equally divided into two parts; the first, consisting of such places of Holy Writ, as are taken from the Old Testament, and the other from the New; both which, manifestly proove the Titles that are placed over them, as the Bookes, Chapters, and Verses, there specified (being turned unto) will declare. Where the quotations are few (though one pertinent verse be sufficient for proofe of any thing therein contained) I entreate thee, Gentle Reader, make use of thy talents, in helping to furnish the the First Fruits of my Labours (publiſhed for their ſakes who chiefely deſire Chriſts glory) thy kinde acceptance of which will be an incouragement to haſten the comming forth of the reſidue. And ſo committing thee to GOD, and it to thy favourable cenſure, I reſt

Thine in our Chriſt,

I. W.

A Reaſon now to render why
no Verſe is ſet at large:
Was that ſmall price the Booke ſhould buy,
and to prevent Preſſe charge:
Reſpect good will, the places trye,
each Verſe there ſet doth Truth diſcrye.

Truth

O Warre, thou Sonne of Warre, thy Chriſt, (this Warre uphold) Confront the Bloody Whoore, that Soules for gaine haue ſold.
Good folke will welcome ſure,
this worthy worke of thine,
Which miſtie Clouds expells,
by truth, that cleere doth ſhine:
Whoſe Cuſtody is fitt,
even for all ſorts of Men,
Let the Lord multiply,
and make thy Talent tenne.

B. R.

YOu Chriſtian men, whom God hath ſet to be,
Maſters of Families in your degree:
Young Men and Maids, this Booke Companion make,
ſo ſhall not Rome cauſe you the truth forſake:
You younger ſort, and Grammer Catechiſts,
that yet know not, wherein your bliſſe conſiſtes:
Learn'd, ignorant, all Sexes, and all ages,
Warre (that ſhews Truth in ev'ry of his pages)
Greets you with peace, and doth of you deſire,
that all that can, will adde ſticks to his fire;
Which ſtill he prayes may gather heate, and flame,
to blaſt Romes Whore, and glorifie Gods Name.

R. B.

A Bleſſed Warre, that makes a bleſſed peace,
A bleſſed peace, that breeds the ſpirites reſt:
Long hold that Warre, and never may it ceaſe,
that ends the Battaile, in the ſpirit bleſt:
Where Truth, confuting Errour in his height,
doth ſhew the Conqueſt of Divine conceit.
The Word, the Sword, where Faith doth fairely ſhow
the ſonne of Pride, the Pope his overthrow.

Refine it nere ſo much.
It is the life and light of love,
The Sunne that ever ſhineth,
And ſpirit of that ſpeciall Grace,
That Faith and Love defineth.
It is the warrant of the Word,
That yeeld's a ſent ſo ſweete,
As gives a power to Faith, to tread

Here painted out, foule, filthy, false, Poperie:
Revert your Minds, and at it stand amaz'd,
In ancient times, how Romish whores were prais'd, Seducing Kings, triumphing over all:
They Soules from Hell, and Purgatorie call,
O seeming Saint: but greedy griping beast:

Harken thine end, thy fatall threed is spunne,
Enrowled are the woes, thou canst not shunne:
Reuenging Kings, reward will render thee,
Whither wilt thou flie? thy fearfull destinie,
Amongst thy lrefull foes, will be to fall:
Revenging Kings, whom vassalls thou didst call,
Rushing shall reare strong Bulwarks to thy wall,
Extirpate thee, destroy thy Seate, and all.

Eight Propositions of the Romish Church, contradicting one another.

Propositions.	Contradictions.
1. That a man is justifyed before God by righteousnesse inherent, and not imputative.	These two contradict each other: for the Merites of the Saints are not inherent in us, being other mens; wherefore wee can receive no benefit by them, except by imputation, which is denyed.
2 That the Church hath a treasurie, which is the superabounding Merits of the Saints, and that the Pope hath power to give thereof to whom hee pleaseth by Indulgence.

Propositions.	Contradictio ns
3 The Pope granteth pardons of all sinnes for many yeares, or in Articulo mortis.	These two also contradict one another: for a man, which hath in his hand a sealed Pardon of all his sins for more yeares then hee can by course of nature live, or at the point of his death, why may not he say, I am certain of my salvation, because nothing but sin can hinder it, and here is the free Pardon and discharge thereof.
4 That no man can bee certaine of his Salvation, but ought to Doubt.
5 All men ought to use the mediation or intercession of Saints, because that of themselves they are unworthy.	These two likewise contradict each other, for he that can merit is worthy, & he which can supererrogate is more then worthy.
6 That some men can merit, yea more, even supererrogate.

Propositions.	Contradictions
7 That Churchmen may not marry for that it pollutes and defiles them.	And these two doe also contradict one another: for if Marriage pollute Churchmen, how can it bee a Sacrament and confer Grace? and if it bee a Sacrament and confer Grace, how can it defile & pollute Churchmen?
8 That Marriage is a Sacrament, and all Sacraments conferre Grace.

To

The Authors Advertiſement to the Reader.

COurteous Reader, having after great paines, and long ſtudy, compoſed the ſeverall Heads contayned in this Booke, and the many proofes that maintaine the Verity thereof, which being not ſet downe, as the Bookes doe uſually follow one another, in the Old and New Teſtaments. But are placed as they were gathered at ſundry times (by ſeverall Readings) and as they doe beſt ſuite with the Title under which they are couched. That thou mayſt with greater facility turne unto any Chapter or Verſe here quoted. My advice is, that thou commit to Memory the names of the Books of the Old and New Teſtament, as they are orderly and ordinarily ſet downe in the leafe that immediatly precedes the firſt Chapter of Geneſis (in all Bibles) which will not onely much further thee in the ſpeedy finding ding out of any Verſe here ſet downe: But alſo inable thee with farre greater celerity to turne unto any place, which the Preacher ſhall in his Sermon cite, for the prooving of any Doctrine or Vſe whatſoever. The want of which (as I have often obſerved) hath cauſed many (in Church) to toſſe the leaves of their Bibles to and fro (to ſeeke the place hee nominates) and oftentimes to cloſe the Booke without finding of the ſame. Which I thought good in my brotherly love to advertiſe thee of; having beene as much troubled (in that reſpect) as any, untill Experience (the beſt Tutour) taught me the way, that now I adviſe thee to; and being (as it may bee) eaſily acquired, will be both pleaſant and profitable, to further thy Religious deſigne, and pious diety, which otherwiſe may ſeeme prolixe and troſome. And ſo wiſhing thy growth in Grace here, and perfection hereafter, I reſt
